

LEARN, LEAD, LAUNCH

Tuesday, June 14, 2016: Hardin County Schools Early College and Career Center

Friday, June 17, 2016: Johnson Central High School

Wednesday, June 22, 2016: ECU Perkins Building

9:00AM – 3:00PM

Mark your calendars for the L3 Summit Series where K-12 teachers share and model how they utilize best practices in the social studies classroom.

Please join us for these professional learning opportunities hosted by the Kentucky Department of Education. Attendees can learn from teacher leaders in planned social studies sessions. In addition, for those who want to share effective practices, there will be 30-minute open sessions.

- Learn new social studies-related strategies that engage and motivate students
- Model what works in your classroom
- Dig into effective strategies for improved student achievement
- Gain deeper understanding of inquiry practices

Register to attend via <http://tinyurl.com/kyl3summits>

L3 SUMMIT

- Open sessions for teachers to informally present
- Focused social studies sessions
- Idea “SLAM”
- Opportunities for collaboration

